

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the barbers of South Dakota have established a reputation for service to their customers and their communities; and

WHEREAS, the barbers in South Dakota communities are an important part of our social and economic life; and

WHEREAS, it is indeed appropriate that South Dakotans recognize the contributions that are being made by the barbers of our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Joe Foss, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim Monday, May 14, 1956, as

and do urge all South Dakotans to give special recognition to their barbers who on that day will be attending the annual convention of the South Dakota Barbers' Association which will be held at Redfield.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed this 8th day of May, 1956.
